Due Pensione

Just Another Apartment Scam?

● Due Pensione Apartments   ● Due Pensione Resources

Due Pensione Apartments
Investment

Deed Of Novation

New Contracts

Contract
Returned If ...

Clause 28.1

Update On
Due Pensione
Contracts

Questions

Due Pensione Resources
Web Sites

Contact Us

Privacy

Site Map

Due Pensione Apartments - One Unhappy Buyers Experience

Due Pensione: my unhappy experience with the planned Wellington apartments and developer Steve Goodey.

NOTE: This site is not, and does not claim to be, connected in anyway with the official Due Pensione Apartment website nor its developer Steve Goodey.

You can find the official website at http://www.duepensione.co.nz

The information found on this site is my personal experience with the Due Pensione Apartments and developer Steve Goodey.

Unfortunately I signed up for a Due Pensione apartment in Wellington, New Zealand. I would not advise anyone else to do the same, and I will be providing you with the tools to do the due diligence that I was remiss with.

If you decide to go ahead with your purchase I wish you lots of luck, but you should not do so blindly.

- Investment
  Reasons Due Pensione is a good investment - false advertising?
- Deed Of Novation
  My original Due Pensione contract was by way of a Deed Of Novation.
- New Contracts
  New Due Pensione contracts needed to "make the contracts more bankable"
- Contract Returned If ...
  Illegal tactics by the people of Due Pensione.
- Clause 28.1
- Update On Due Pensione Contracts
  Latest update on the Due Pensione contract saga.

The information found on this site is not intended as legal advice, investment advice, or any other advice. It is a record of my experience, and should you use my testimonial it should be combined with your own due diligence and professional advice.

● Due Pensione Apartments   ● Due Pensione Resources